TWO DECADES OF LOVE, DEDICATION, AND PRIDE

May 1986 marks the retirement of President Robert B. Isner. After two decades of love, dedication, and pride the Isner's will be moving on along with the class of '86. Oak Hill Academy has changed immensely since their arrival in the summer of 1966.

The Isner's came to a very different Oak Hill from Gardner Webb College where they only began to make a dent in the improvements since 1966. First, with joint efforts, Hash and Ussery Dormitories, Vaughan Administration Building, and Fellds Fine Arts Building were all totally renovated. They paid off a huge debt on Hough Dormitory and began to beautify the landscaping throughout the entire campus. The Isner's also began adding extras that were greatly needed. A new faculty duplex, tennis courts, the Woman's Missionary Infirmary, and recently the track and cookout area were added since their arrival. More importantly was the construction of the Rev. J.F. Fletcher Chapel Library Building. The new Chapel took five long years of planning before it was finally completed in 1975. Before the new building was built chapel services were held in the basement of Turner.

Other changes were made in many different ways. In 1966 the total number of students was 67, now in 1986 the student body exceeds 150. Over a 20 year period enrollment has more than doubled and is still increasing. Before the Isner's came all the food served was produced here on campus, while today it is brought in from many different areas. The academic program has a wider selection of classes that have been strengthened greatly. They have also added a large number of student activities. The improvement of the choir and basketball team are especially important too. The Warriors ranked as one of the top ten teams in the nation. President and Mrs. Robert B. Isner's contributions are countless because I have only mentioned a few.

As for their background, it remains very strong. President Isner received his B.A. from David-Elkins College and his M.S. from Appalachian State University. Mrs. Linda M. Isner received her B.A. from Appalachian State University and her M.S. from Radford University. Mrs. Isner is an Administrative Assistant to the President, (night) Psychology Teacher, Counselor, Cafeteria Manager, and sponsor to National Honor Society and the International Students.

The 1986 student body, faculty, and staff would like to thank the Isner's for their enormous efforts that have improved and enlightened our environment and every day life there at Oak Hill Academy. We dedicate the 1986 HILLTOPPER to you, President and Mrs. Robert B. Isner, for two decades of love, dedication, and pride.

SENIORS

Four years of waiting and wanting, at last the time has come to walk across the stage and receive our diplomas. The emotions each senior feels are countless, all the excitement, fear, joy, sadness, and hope is effecting each and every one of us. Everything we have worked for is now paying off in every aspect. All the close friends and good times will remain in our memories for many years to come. The time has finally arrived to move on and what a relief it is

The senior class officers and class have worked hard with each other putting together a senior gift and making the class of '86 one of the best. Although, the time has come to part with Oak Hill Academy and close friends with tears in our eyes and smiles on our faces. CONGRATULATIONS and good luck in the years ahead!

Class Motto—
Learn to make the most of life
Love no happy day,
Time will never bring thee back chances swept away,
Leave no tender word unsaid
Love while love shall last
The mill cannot grind with the water past

MOVING ON

High school is finally over! All our hard work is captured in this little piece of paper given to us in the gym filled with all our friends . . . with whom I have spent so much time and shared so many experiences with in the past years. Everyone looks so excited in their caps and gowns as they wait impatiently to walk across the stage and receive their diplomas. As I hear the other names being called, all the memories swirl through my mind. Am I ready to leave most of these people behind?

Students work for four years for their senior year and graduation. When it arrives we feel in the middle of moving on and staying with those who are known best. During the years close friendships have been built. When May 17 finally arrives how do you say good-bye? "We'll keep in touch" is always said but how often and for how long does this hold true? The future looks so bright with new experiences, friends, and fun times ahead, but it will all be so different. Seniors have so many questions about what's ahead of which none can be answered. "Take it one day at a time" as Mr. Patton would say and hopefully only the best will come to all.

SPECTACULAR SENIORS!

Each year four special honor awards are given to select members of the senior class. The Daughters of the American Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution represent good citizenship. Mr. and Ms. Oak Hill Academy is an honor that represents all-around outstanding students. Each of the four categories are nominated and voted on by the faculty and staff and later announced to the student body.

The D.A.R. good citizenship was given to Lianne Moore. She came to Oak Hill at the beginning of her junior year, during this time she has become an academically strong student, a bookstore worker, and a member of National Honor Society. The S.A.R. good citizenship award went to Lonnie Sydnor, a first year student here.

He is a basketball player and also a member of National Honor Society.

Mr. and Ms. Oak Hill Academy of the senior class of 1986 are Russell Miller and Rachel Muenzenmayer. This is both Russell's and Rachel's third year at Oak Hill where they have proved themselves to be very influential students. Russell is an honor roll student and a member of National Honor Society. Rachel was Junior Class Secretary. She is now Senior Class President and President of National Honor Society, being her second year in the chapter.

This year's senior honors were all very well deserved. Being selected for these honors is very important because they recognize all the immense contributions in every aspect to the entire campus.

Juniors

Junior Class Officers: President: Tabe Kimey, Vice President: Bill Milton, Treasurer: Wendy Nester, and Secretary: Jennifer Parker

This years junior class has and will work hard for the benefit of the school. With a large number of fun-filled fund raising events, such as the Christmas cards, enough money will be made for a wonderful prom. The 1986 Junior-Senior Prom theme is the "This Enchanted Moment". At midnight we plan for Cinderella and her court to be crowned by the Isner's. All the activities should make for a momentous evening. The junior class would like to extend their gratitude to Mrs. Bonham for all her help in making the 1986 Prom a success.

With one of the largest sophomore classes Oak Hill has ever had, this year's class is definitely unique. Many students are new while the remaining have returned from last year

The class officers are planning to help raise money for the senior class gift. With the class officers this year, the outlook is great. They are: President—Tamara Angle, Vice President—Shannon Ferguson, and Secretary/Treasurer—Susan Dovel. With very talented students the class of '88 looks fantastic.

This years annual staff has worked very hard putting together the 1986 Hilltopper. With all the pictures, layouts, copies, and deadliness things can get rather hectic but everyone helped in pulling things together making our annual successful.

The annual is a very important aspect to the student body especially the seniors, being their last year of high school. In the years to come you will look back and remember all the good times and friends you had here at Oak Hill Academy.

As the 1985-86 Hilltopper editor I would like to thank Mike Clark, Wendy Nester, Bill Stimpson, Mr. Murphy, and especially Ms. Bryant for all their help and cooperation.

I hope this years annual will be one you cherish for many years to come.

Drama

The fall play production, directed by Ms. Sue Lifvendahl, was presented to the student body on November 30. "The Summer People" by Shirley Jackson and "Oh, What a Tangled Webb" by John Carroll were the two plays presented

The cast of "The Summer People" included Ronald Mahoney, Lianne Moore, Tamara Angle, Jami Sells, Enzo Soviero, and Ted Bartlett. "Oh, What a Tangled Webb" consisted of Stephanie Shade, Sue Amundsen, Brian Philyaw, Kelly Nelson, Meade Atkinson, Nicolas Thorley, and Heather Smith. The stage crew members, who added the finishing touches, were Scott Good, Henry Smith, and Lianne Moore. Thanks to the Drama Club's hard work the student body and faculty had a most enjoyable evening of live entertainment

CHOIR

Hard work and harmony are two words that have a great deal of meaning to the name "choir" at Oak Hill Academy. A lot of devotion must be displayed in order to bring you the Christmas and Spring concerts, which always prove to be emotionally moving times on campus.

The choir is made up of talented students who wish to bring pleasure and enlightenment to their fellow students and the faculty. Yet, the choir would not have a soul if it were not for Ms. Hill, a determined lady with a will of her own. Without her pushing, patience, and great effort we would not succeed. She is our inspiration and we hope our songs will be yours.

*"God sent His singers upon the earth,
With song of sadness and of mirth,
That they might touch the hearts of men,
And bring them back to Heaven again."*

HARD WORK AND HARMONY

'84-'85 Activities

PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ

The 1985 Junior-Senior Prom was held April 19, in the cafeteria. The D.J. was a former student, Mr. Crocket. The fun lasted from 8:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. The theme was "Puttin' on the Ritz". While everyone was preparing for the Prom, the Juniors worked hard remodeling the cafeteria to resemble downtown New York. Everyone had a good time dancing the night away.

On April 27 and 28, Oak Hill's drama and music departments combined their talents to present George Shultz's comic strip "Peanuts". Ms. Hill, the music director and Ms. Livvendahl, the acting director, worked hard to put together a well chosen cast. In return, the production was a complete success.

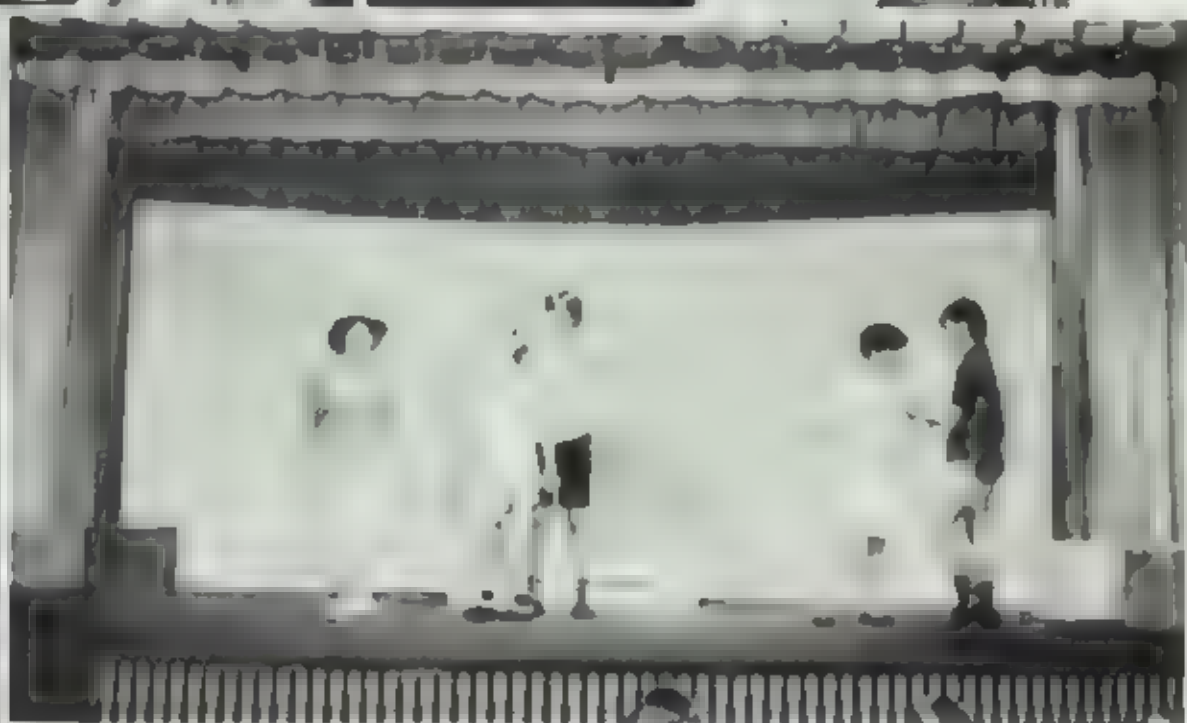

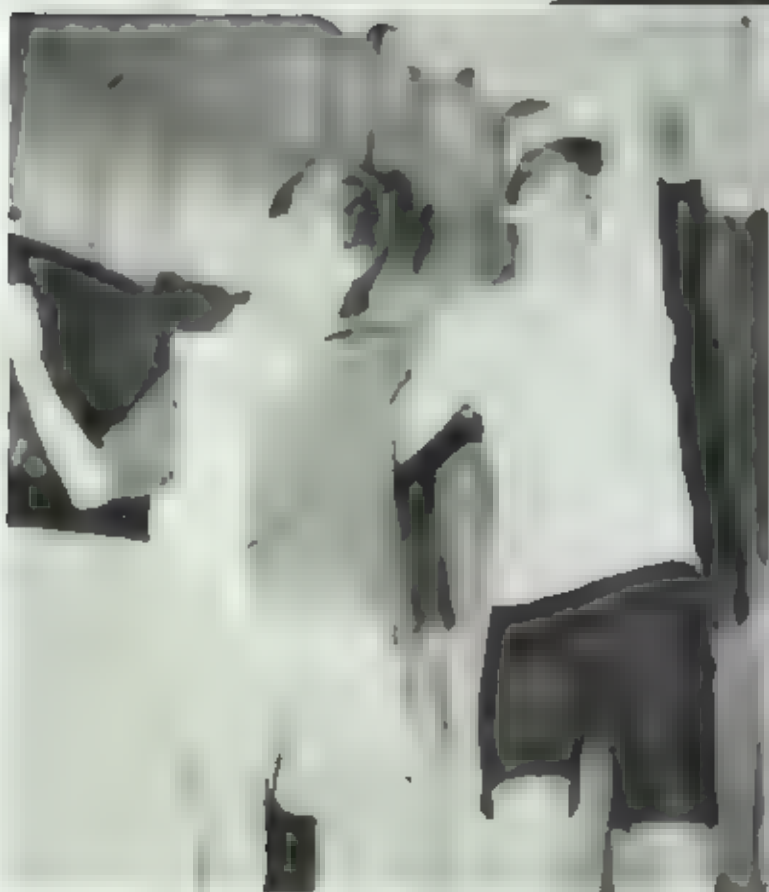

April 28 marked our annual Athletic Banquet. Basketball being a very important part of Oak Hill, the Banquet is set aside to recognize all of our outstanding athletes. The evening began with a nice dinner then proceeded to the chapel for the awards ceremony. Sonny Smith, coach at Auburn University, spoke about the importance of athletics and participation which proved quite inspiring to everyone. The banquet brought the 1984-85 Oak Hill Academy Warrior Basketball Season to a close as one of the top 25 teams in the nation.

May 18, 1985 was a very important day for the 1985 Senior Class at Oak Hill Academy. Baccalaureate was held at 11:00 a.m. where Dr. Kenneth E. Glass, a member of the Virginia Baptist General Board, gave a sermon. Graduation began at 1:00 p.m. where Dr. William E. Lavery, President of Virginia Tech. University, spoke.

Six seniors were recognized as Honor Students: Hung Lam, Khanh Tran, Opas Wangsuekul, Susan Dudley, Gary Cross, and Tommy Taylor. Five Juniors were also honored as marshalls. Brian Philyaw, Chief Marshall: Carla Dalton, Rachel Muenzenmayer, David Gunter, and Lisa Oyhenart. After twelve long years of waiting and working, congratulations were finally given to the 46 Oak Hill Academy graduates.

President's Reception

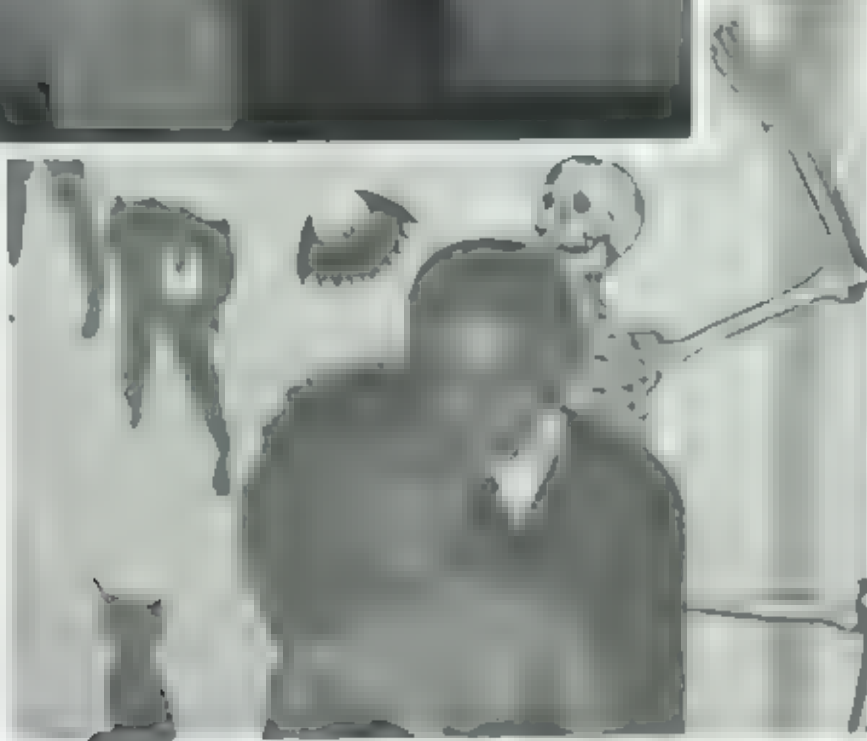

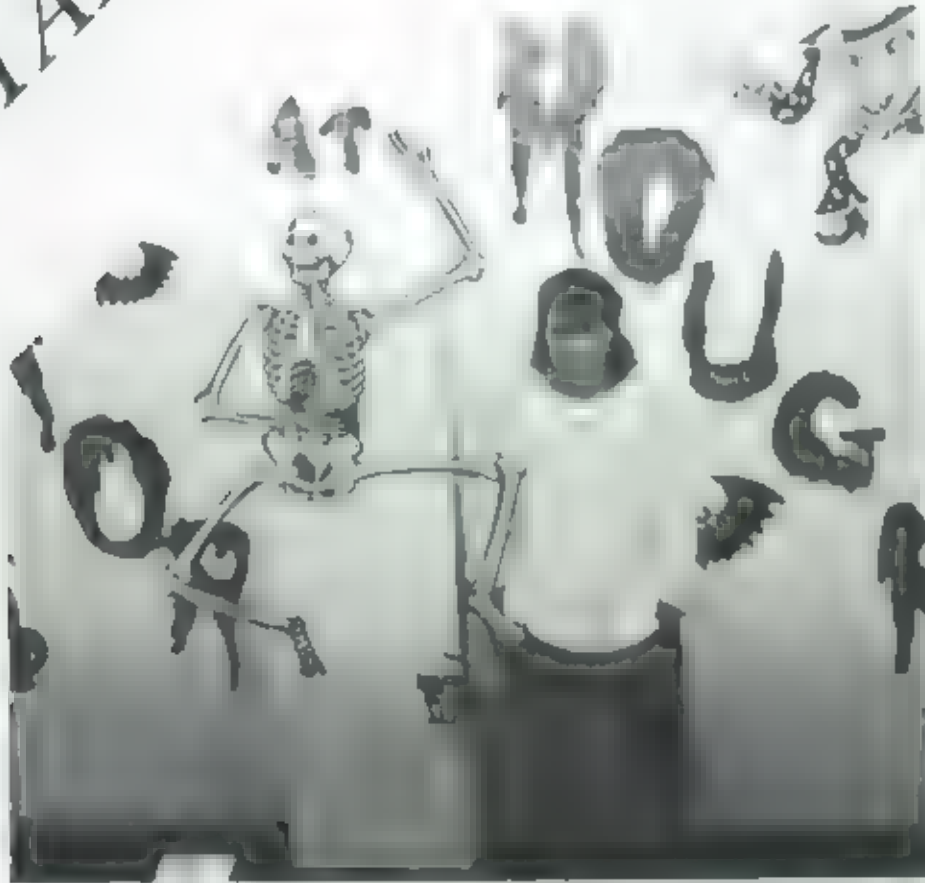

The President's Reception held on August 31, 1985, marked our first formal event of the year. This event is a chance for the student body to meet President and Mrs. Isner, Mr. and Mrs. Patton and the new faculty members. Oak Hill's new faculty members are Ms. Connix, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, and Ms. Green. This time is set aside for a warm welcoming of the 1985-86 year to come

—Angela Muenzer '86

HALLOWEEN

Here at Oak Hill the Senior Class held their annual Halloween celebration/dance on October 26th. The costumes ranged from professional models to Moslems. Prizes were given to those in three categories. Most original went to Shannon Goodyear and Georgia Andrews as a toilet bowl and the Tidy Bowl Woman. Scariest went to Richie Pietraszko as the Grim Reaper. Best-all-around went to Sandi Lueders and Leslie Bremner who went as Minnie and Mickey Mouse. Throughout the rest of the evening, students enjoyed refreshments and dancing

—Celeste Melton '86

THE TALENT SHOW

Our unique talent show was held Saturday, November 23, in the Chapel. Fellow students displayed a wide range of talents from singing to gymnastics. Shannon Ferguson, Sue Amundsen, Stephanie Shade, Nick Thorley, Bill Milton, Tamara Angle, and Angela Muenzer proved their singing talents while Pete Bowen played the guitar in a song with Tamara. Sue Amundsen added a gymnastic routine. Richie Pietraszko and Mike Reeves used their talents through an electric guitar song. To end the evening with a special highlight Greg Berry, Duraine Greene, and Zoe Sydnor made up their own rap songs which everyone enjoyed. A special thanks was given to Ms. Hill for the organization and her piano playing talents. The students and faculty felt the show was very entertaining

Thanksgiving

On November 28, the students were grateful to have only a half day of school, to spend plenty of time preparing for the annual Thanksgiving banquet. Six thirty finally arrived, the students and faculty filled the cafeteria for the great feast. Eating at large tables under candelight the thanks began

Proceeding to the Chapel, the Thanksgiving program began. The Choir, in their first concert, sang songs of everyone's gratitude. Then five students spoke about important things to be thankful for. Rachel Muenzenmayer spoke on friends, Troy Beasley on our families, Lonnie Sydnor on our nation, Stephanie Shade on our world and finishing with Wendy Nester speaking about God. Their thoughts helped to make everyone realize how much there is to be thankful for. The night ended with the singing of "America the Beautiful" and President Isner joining everyone together for a Thanksgiving prayer

Dormitories

HOUGH

On a humid day in late August we started to arrive. We came individually, each looking forward to a new school year. For some of us, living in a dorm would be a new experience. An experience we all will remember for the rest of our lives. The close friendships formed throughout the dorm—there is always someone to talk to next door, next floor, even in your own room.

Harmony was the key to Hough Dorm life. Our devoted dorm mothers, Ms. Marion and Ms. Green were always there. With our problems, sickness, or when we just needed some motherly attention. Without their help, love, and support, we could not have made it through the year.

STUDENT SURVEY

For as long as there have been teenagers, especially those of the high school crowd, the question concerning what is popular and what is not has remained a changing and burning issue. Somethings, however, have always been on the list of "ICKIES" and "AWESOME." A few of the all time not so wonderful teenager notables include acne, the food, gaining weight, and having to get your hair cut. On the positive side, we seem to have a permanent affection for breaking a few of the ten commandments, as well as school codes, ignoring almost all our parents and teachers warnings, and succumbing to the traditional lure of brain cell deterioration of blaring music.

In this current poll, many questions were asked, as listed below, while apparently a lot of different answers were given. As you can see I received a large number of bizarre answers, one person even put Mickey Mouse down for their favorite actor. As always, popularity remains an uninhibited and sometimes degenerative with students. Enjoy!

CLOSING

One fails to realize what one cherishes until the days have slipped away and the end has come

Though a new beginning has arrived, memories of what has past still lingers on.

The friendships which one made soon had spread apart

As we each go our separate ways those days which passed so quickly took on a new meaning

Marvin,

Hey I like your letter you said
I ~~was~~ couldn't come down
because the lots have been sold and I like your letter that someone told me that it was in Kousare of there can come through and give me a call and I will be glad to ~~see you~~ (124-388)

Love ya,

John
Hawkins

Marvelous Starvelous Marvin,

I'm so glad and I know you are too that this year is gone. Out of Everyone in Ussery Dorm, You are one of the few I really Liked. I think you're cool and I hope if you ever come up to D.C. or around there that you will look my last name up in the book.

It's been really fun this Year or as fun as can be expected for OHA.
